

St. Mark's Anglican Church
Vero Beach, Florida

POLICY REGARDING WEDDINGS

Only members of the parish and the diocese may use St. Mark's Anglican Church for weddings.

Membership at St. Mark's consists of officially joining the parish, and regularly participating in the worship of the church and supporting the church with tithes and offerings. Couples must be members of the church for at least six months before planning a wedding. Couples will be expected to go through premarital counseling with the rector.

For any further questions, please call the parish office.
